PREAMBLE

Through the act of governing and as a treaty first nation, the Uchucklesaht Tribe assumes the responsibility of providing transparent and accountable government, blending hereditary and modern-day governing institutions. This requires Uchucklesaht officials to perform their duties and exercise their powers with honesty, integrity, impartiality and regard to the common good of all Uchucklesaht citizens.

To assist with realizing these goals, the Uchucklesaht Tribe wishes to establish rules of conduct that all Uchucklesaht officials must abide by, as well as disclosure and enforcement processes aimed at ensuring Uchucklesaht officials abide by those rules and, if they do not, they are sanctioned appropriately.

The Uchucklesaht Tribe adopts this Act based on these values.

- (d) Despite subsections (a)(ii) and (c), if the operation of those subsections would result in there being fewer than three Uchucklesaht officials present at the meeting who can vote on the matter, then so long as they have complied with subsection (a)(i), all Uchucklesaht officials present at the meeting may participate in the discussion and vote on the matter.
